Sixth EULAR Scientifically Endorsed Course on Systemic Lupus Erythematosus

Pisa, Italy, September 1st-6th, 2013

The Course is aimed at 70 young rheumatologists (aged less than 40 years) and has been designed to provide comprehensive and intensive training on various aspects of systemic lupus erythematosus (SLE).

The Course will consist of morning and afternoon sessions that will address the following topics:

- Therapy of SLE, molecular basis of drug action;
- Evaluation of SLE patients: disease activity, damage, response to therapy, quality of care, EULAR recommendations;
- Renal involvement in SLE;
- Neurological involvement in SLE;
- Skin involvement in SLE;
- Particular problems in SLE;
- Pregnancy in SLE;
- SLE and related conditions.

In addition, each day will include the discussion of difficult clinical cases related to the day's topics.

The course will be held at the Grand Hotel Duomo, located in via Santa Maria 94, in Pisa, Italy.

CME credits: Applications have been forwarded for both national and European credits
